The Broadway Department Store

Department Managers' Sale.

The rivalry of department managers to head the list of successful managers is, we fear, causing them to make some very ridiculously low prices. We have placed the running of the business in their hands for this week, so must submit. Each manager is crowding the other for newspaper space, which is limited. In fairness to each one I have decided for today to give to each department just two items. Every manager says they have a multitude of bargains and "Won't you come and see them?"

(SIGNED.) THE ADVERTISER.

From the Artist's Brush to the Tack Hammer.

Every process through which our carpets pass is a step nearer perfection. Beginning at the design and following through the long process of dyeing, weaving, selecting, cutting, sewing and laying, every workman is the best that money can secure.

Sometimes we have something to do with the coloring of the designs—we know best what is wanted in Southern California—we are very careful to select those that will meet with the approval of this art-loving town. We send our buyer to the market first, before any others are thinking of going, and we therefore have the creme of the creme—the best of the best—the most artistic of the artists.

Warp, filling and back must be up to our standard—we must have carpets that will live up to the "Barker guarantee"—we must be careful about admitting doubtful qualities because we would suffer loss by selling them.

We repeat the three important facts which place our carpets and floor coverings of all kinds in a guaranteed class by themselves—

ST. LOUIS AND 'FRISCO. TO HEADJUST INDEBTEDNESS. (BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) NEW YORK, May 28.—The Journal of Commerce says, the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad Company has determined to readjust and refund its bonded indebtedness and the underlying bonds secured, by liens upon its system of railroads. For that purpose it will create a fifty-year gold refunding mortgage to a total authorized amount of $5,000,000. Of this sum $2,500,000 bonds are to be issued and reserved for refunding purposes, and the bonds not required for refunding are to be reserved for additional extensions, improvements and for additional equipment and property.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE IN THE OFFICES AND COURTS.

WHAT BILLY "DUNN."

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The City Council yesterday awarded the Jefferson-street franchise to C. A. Sumner, at $5100.

Jailer Ben Robbins was yesterday dropped from the police force. The appointment of a public-market inspector brought out a display of petty politics.

Judge Shaw rendered an opinion yesterday overruling a demurrer in the Bledsoe-Campbell judgment right in San Bernardino county. First blood is for Bledsoe.

B. Duncan of the "evil eye" was in Judge Taylor's court yesterday pursuing the Trautman, Mrs. Katherine Lewis, for property given her by her deceased mother.

Gregorio Barbosa, convicted of manslaughter, was sentenced to ten years in the California State Prison.

The one-legged cyclist, "shooter of the chutes" is now a single man. His wife got a divorce from him yesterday on all kinds of grounds.

Three of the men arrested in the poker-room raid were assigned in the Police Court yesterday.

Emma Sinclair, who failed to appear as a witness in the Fitzsimmons battery case, was fined for contempt of court yesterday.

AT THE CITY HALL.

SUMNER GETS JEFFERSON STREET FRANCHISE.

MANIPULATIONS ENDED SUDDENLY IN THE MIDDLE.

With the First Bidder Defaulted the Council Had no Other Course but to Award the Franchise to the Next Man in Line.

C. A. Sumner is the proud possessor of the Jefferson-street franchise, and the Traction Company wears a smile. It was the unexpected that happened in the Council chamber yesterday morning when Mr. Sumner marched up to the desk and demanded a cash check on the Merchants' National Bank for $5100. C. H. Stone, who bid $7500 for the franchise, defaulted.

The payment of a sequel to a peculiar provision of the Broughton law. When the bill was pending in the Legislature Council opposed the measure on the ground that it apparently provided for a system of straw bids. Now that it has become the franchise law, the members of the council, although it is by no means certain which is correct.

The intention of Mr. Sumner and those whom he represents to allow the bid which he made to stand, in which event the franchise would have been purchased by Abbot Kinney at $5500. In either case the franchise would have been awarded to the Traction Company, it is said.

The Broughton law provides that if the highest bidder does not pay for the franchise within twenty-four hours the franchise shall go to the next highest bidder. By implication it provides that in another twenty-four hours the third bidder shall have a chance to buy the franchise. This is the way the law has always been interpreted until yesterday, when it became for the first time the subject of a council vote.

Mr. Sumner was told by the City Attorney that the law does not say that this can be done, and that the franchise would be on the matter by the courts is an open question.

There was no disposition to let the franchise go to Mr. Sumner, and the Traction Company's representative to let the opportunity to secure the franchise slip, and so the $5100 check was promptly forthcoming. By motion of the Council the franchise was then formally awarded to Mr. Sumner, and the City Attorney instructed to draw the necessary ordinance of award.

Now the Council is faced with the question of whether to reject the bid of Mr. Stone, and that in some more important matter this will be brought to light.

It is wished that there had been a test of the law on this matter, said one member. "In fact, there was a disposition among the members of the Council to reject the bid in order that the law might be submitted to legal analysis. There are many peculiar provisions in the law, and sooner or later there is going to be a test of it in the courts. It is fearfully and wonderfully made."

A suit against Mr. Stone, to whom the franchise contract was awarded, was brought by the Council. The City Attorney is seriously contemplating the suit. The City Attorney is seriously contemplating the suit. The City Attorney is seriously contemplating the suit.

PETTY POLITICS.

INSPECTOR'S APPOINTMENT.

One of the most trivial political plays that has been enacted at the City Hall this year was put through the Council yesterday with but one dissenting voice. By a change in the public-market ordinance the Council took to itself the appointment of the public-market inspector.

Heretofore the public-market inspector has been appointed by the Tax and License Collector, who has had general supervision of the market. Under Tax Collector White the market has paid well and there have been few complaints about the manner in which it was conducted.

Ira Harrington has acted as inspector, but yesterday he resigned to take a better position with D. Hewes, the owner of the present market site, who is going into the business on his own account. Tax Collector White intended to appoint John Adams as his successor, but the new sales railway company's line to the position. But Mr. Calvert was persona non grata to Mr. Lander of the Council and so that body yesterday passed an ordinance that the man the Council appointing power. President Powers alone voted against it. After mature deliberation, the Mayor signed the ordinance and it will be published in time for the Council to appoint a man to serve the first of the month.

The new market at Third street and Central avenue will be on the company June 1. Those Councilmen who were responsible for the change of location are fearful of the outcome.

ROBBINS RESIGNS.

PORETHLESS DISMISSAL.

To prevent his summary dismissal from the force, Jailer Ben Robbins yesterday presented his resignation to the Police Commission. It was promptly accepted, although one or two of the commissioners were in favor of dismissing him anyway.

Last Friday Jailer Robbins and a trusty in the City Jail, named Thomas Dwyer, went to Washington Gardens. Robbins took his man from the jail without authorization by the Chief. When they arrived at the gardens Robbins and his "trusty" companion went into Henry Koch's saloon. Dwyer asked to be excused for a minute, and hasn't been seen since.

Once before Dwyer escaped by gaining entrance to the matron's room and crawling down an iron stand pipe. For this reason the Chief gave special orders that Dwyer should not be taken on the street without instructions from him.

In his report of the matter to the Police Commission the Chief stated that Robbins has been guilty of a violation of the rule against taking liquor into the station, and also of insubordination.

No appointment was made to fill the vacancy on the force. Officer John Shand has been assigned to jail duty by the Chief.

CHIEF WILL CONTROL.

A resolution that is expected to have a wholesome effect on discipline at the Police Station was passed by the board on recommendation of Commissioner Walker. It provides for the concentration of authority and responsibility in the hands of the Chief. Heretofore the board has appointed the jailers, desk clerks and patrol-wagon drivers, and this custom has several times led to minor acts of insubordination.

From their election by the Police Commission these petty officers have gained the idea that they are in a way equal to the Chief, and for some time to the commission. Especially in the case of the desk clerks, who have been making the clerks amenable to the Chief and subject to summary dismissal by him.

The air of supremacy assumed by the men on the stools has given rise to the belief that those who have dealings at the jail, and for some time to the commission. Especially in the case of the desk clerks, who have been making the clerks amenable to the Chief and subject to summary dismissal by him.

essentially be thousands of places open for Americans, each insuring permanent employment at a satisfactory compensation. But the Philippine Civil Service Board wants only the best qualified applicants that can be found. The man or woman who has faltered through incompetence to make a living in this country will find no secure waiting place for him or her in the Philippines. Politics will not cut any figure either.

How are these appointments to be obtained? Citizens residing within the limits of the United States must write to the Civil Service Commission at Washington for application blanks and printed information. The application blanks must be filled out in full, stating the name, age, education, and other qualifications of the applicant. One of the four-passed application is devoted to questions that must be answered before a regular physician, who

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Los Angeles Ebell.

The following officers for the coming club year were elected by the Ebell Society at the meeting held on Monday afternoon, May 27, at the home of Mrs. W. T. Lewis: first vice-president, Mrs. E. T. Pettigrew; second vice-president, Mrs. Williamson Dunn; third vice-president, Mrs. Edgar L. Swain; recording secretary, Miss Jennie E. Henderson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. A. Praeger; financial secretary, Miss Eugene L. Hobbs; treasurer, Mrs. M. B. Maurie; general curator, Mrs. J. B. Mithard; chairman Programme Committee, Mrs. B. R. Baumgardt; chairman House Committee, Mrs. Mithard; W. Wiggins, directors, Mrs. R. J. Burdette and Mrs. L. W. Blinn.

Several of the officers elected have served in the same capacity during the present year. Mrs. W. T. Lewis, re-elected as president, is a general favorite among the members of the club, and has been one of the most active workers in important movements. Mrs. J. B. Mithard, chairman of the programme committee, is the business end of the club, and the election of Mrs. Pettigrew, Mrs. Dunn, Miss Maurie and Miss Hobbs was also tribute to their previous services as officers of the club.

An interesting report of the work of sections was read by Mrs. Mithard and a financial report by the treasurer, Mrs. Charles Praeger.

Several amendments to the bylaws of the club were passed, one of these providing that the last meeting of the year shall take place a week earlier than heretofore. By general vote the article prohibiting the discussion of political and religious matters in the club was stricken from the bylaws. Such topics are continually coming up in the current events section and general meetings, and it was the feeling of most members that this had long outgrown the original intention of the club.

A proposition to limit the membership of the club to 400 was brought up for discussion, but proved unpopular.

Wednesday Morning Club.

The current events section of the Wednesday Morning Club met in Assembly Hall in East Los Angeles Monday afternoon, May 27, at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Julia Coffin read a paper on the Platt amendment and its relation to Cuban affairs. Mrs. F. R. Willis talked about the geographical features of the Nicaragua Canal, also the attempt of Uncle Sam to restore harmony between South American countries as to the Pan-American Congress should take place as planned. Miss Neuman spoke of the new news topics, among them the ordering home of German prisoners from China. Kaiser Wilhelm's investment in Northern Pacific stocks, the world coming to the aid of the United States and the resignation of both. Mrs. Arnold read a paper in regard to the future of China. Miss Isabel Finney told about a new religion called Habelism started in Persia and having many followers in the United States. Mrs. W. Knight read an article about a training school for detectives. A programme for the yearly closing exercises of the club was discussed. Miss Neuman was chosen leader for the next regular meeting.

Arusa Woman's Club.

The Arusa Woman's Club held its first open meeting on Friday afternoon in the A.O.U.W. Hall. The Monday Afternoon Club of Covina and the Saturday Afternoon Club of Monrovia had been invited to the meeting, and there was an attendance of nearly one hundred and fifty from the three clubs.

Mrs. W. Knight, president of the Arusa Club, presided. A choice literary and musical programme was rendered, readings by Miss Victoria Lynn being the principal feature. Miss Lynn read selections from the writings of Hall Caine, Frank R. Stockton, W. Knight, and Edmund Vance Cooke. The musical numbers were given by Miss Gaudin, Miss L. E. Lewis, and Mrs. Greenleaf. Refreshments were served and an enjoyable hour spent in social intercourse.

Santa Ana Ebell.

The closing lecture for the club year was given last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. G. T. Greenleaf of Redlands on the subject of the Empress Josephine. Mrs. Greenleaf sketched a vivid picture of the latter's life from the time of her girlhood until her death, when her last thoughts were for him who had thrust her aside for the sake of his ambition.

Riverside Socorro.

At the eighth annual meeting of the Socorro Club of Riverside, held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. F. Darling, the retiring president, the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. A. A. Amer; vice-president, Mrs. C. H. Low; secretary, Miss Bertha Kackwell; treasurer, Miss Mary Kackwell.

STORE CLOSED Our Store will be closed tomorrow in honor of the Nation's dead.

War Relics.

In one of our show windows can be seen a collection of war relics which have been secured from government at prices which barely cover the expense of transporting them from the battle fields to the scenes of their capture to the U. S. arsenals and from there here. Many of these relics are less except for the memories which are suggested by every rust spot, every mark of conflict, every scar.

Others of the relics are of use. All of them can be used in various decorative schemes, ornaments, etc. Among them are some guns which were made for the government but never used. These
